MOVING TO BLOCK SERVIAN RETREAT

Teutons Begin Attack Along Border of Montenegro for Purpose.

BULGARS WIN BATTLE

Invaders it is Reported Have Small Town Two Hours' March From Important Railway Point.

Berlin (via Sayville wireless,) Nov. 6.—The Bulgarians have captured Nish, the war office announced today.

The Serb capital's fall followed three days of tenacious fighting, said the report.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Reports from the Serbian front indicate that determined resistance is still being offered to the Bulgarian forces which invaded the southern part of the country The Havas correspondent at Saloniki telgraphing says the Servians are holding out firmly in the Babuna pass and that the Bulgarians are suffering serious losses in the fighting there.

The Servian city of Monastir, in the southwest corner of the country near the Greek border, is said by the correspondent to be safe for the present, as is Prilep, 25 miles northeast of Monastir.

The Bulgarins bombearded the French positions at Krivolak, but without tangible results.

Telegraphic communication is still being maintained for the exchange of official messages between Saloniki and Monastir and Saloniki and Nish

Berlin, Nov. 6.—Advances all along the line by the Teutonic forces invading Servia are announced in official statement by German army headquarters. The capture of 2,700 Servians isreported.

A new movement to cut off the retreat of the Servian army is reported by the Overseas News Agency. The Austrians are said to have begun an attack along the western border of Montenegro, in which country the Servian forces are expected to seek refuge.

These attacks are being made, the news agency says, to the east of Trebinye, in Herzegovina, about 40 miles north of Cattaro. Thus the Montenegrins are being threatened from the west, near the coast, as well as from the north, where fighting has been going on for some time.

The news agency points out that the Servian retreat into Montenegro is made still more difficult by the junction which has been effected by the forces of General von Kovess and the Austrian troops, which have invaded Servia from Bosnia, north of Vishegrad.

It is officially reported that the Bulgarians have completely defeated at a point northeast of Prilep the French forces which were landed at Saloniki. Part of the French contingent was routed and the others were made prisoners. The first of the French prisoners have arrived at Kustendil.

PRESS BUTTON TO KILL.

Edison Says Men Are to Be Mowed Down by Thousands.

Denver, Nov. 6.—"Pretty soon we can be mowing men down by the thousands—or even millions—almost by pressing a button. The slaughter will be so terrible that the machinery itself will virtually have to do the fighting," declared Thomas A. Edison greatest living American inventor and chairman of the United States advisory board, during a brief stay in Denver today, Mr. Edison continued:

"The European war is a crime against humanity. The poor men who are doing the fighting didn't want war. Only a small clique wanted it, and they dragged the millions in.

"We are a long, long way from attaining universal peace. This war has taught us that mankind is not as good as some of us were beginning to think it.

"War can be made so scientific that the very horror of it will help to end war. But that day is not yet near.

"No one can say with certainty that the United States will not have war. But we are not ready. Our preparednessi is at zero. Republics never are prepared.

"We should have ammunition factories right now capable of producing daily twice as much explosives as the whole of the armies in Europe are consuming daily. There should be at least twelve of these government munition factories in the United States

"I don't mean that ammunition should be made now and stored, but the plants should be kept oiled and ready, so that in less than a week we could be turning out twice as much ammunition as the rest of the world put together."

VILLA DEMANDS MONEY.

Threatens to Dyramite American Mining Companies' Plants Unless Funds Are Advanced.

Douglas Ariz., Nov.6 .—Francisco Villa, yesterday demanded forced loans of all American mining companies in Sonora, under threats to dynamite the mines, concentrators and plants.

He delivered an ultimatum to L. R. Budrow, manager of the Lucky Tiger Mining Company, 50 miles south of Douglas; J. S. Williams, jr. manager of the Moctezuma Copper Company, at Nacozari, and the Phelps-Dodge Company, at the terminus of the Nacozari allroad, of $25,000 each.

The demand followed payment by the Greene Cananea Copper Company Cananea, of a similar amount. Neither the Moctezuma Copper Company nor the Lucky Tiger have yet replied nor sent representatives to confer with Villa. The managers refuse to comment on their probable action.

Villa yesterday was credited with the statement that he would support Gen. Alvaro Obregon for President, if Carranza were eliminated. Villa is declared to have stated his belief that Zapata would also favor a new alignment. Villa himself considered the ousting of Carranza a moral victory.

Six thousand women and children left at Casa Grandes by the Villa troops when they invaded Sonora are reported destitute, with 600 deaths from starvation up to a week ago, according to courier arriving today at the border.

WILL DISSOLVE PARLIAMENT

King Constantine of Greece Will Incur Risk of Revolution.

TO HOLD AN ELECTION

Zaimis Will Reconstruct Cabinet of Same Members — Two Additional Appointments.

London, Nov. 6.—King Constantine will dissolve the Greek parliament according to a message from Athens today.

The action of the King is taken to mean that in face of the danger of revolution he has risked his throne to avoid war.

This means that Premier Zaimis will remain in office until a general election can be held. Inasmuch as the troops are mobilized, the election must be much delayed. It cannot be held inside of two months, at the earliest.

Zaimis, will reconstruct his cabinet, which will consist of the same ministers as hitherto, but two additional appointments will be made.

Though not definitely so stated is is assumed here that these posts will be given to Venizelos supporters in the hope of placating that party.

Athens messages say the King evidently realizes he will risk a revolution if he defies the Greek war party out and out. It appears, however, that he is still determined to keep peace and to keep his throne also, if he can

The formation of a temporary ministry of both pro-war and anti-war members, with Venizelos at its head but a sufficient number of the peace element as his colleagues to out-vote the premier, had been suggested. But the fear that Venizelos might force Greece into the struggle is believed to have blocked the plan for a coalition ministry.

Mr. Venizelos is ready to accept the challenge of the King, and appeals to Greeks the world over, especially to the many thousands of Hellenic patriots in America for their support to vindicate the honor of the nation and induce the pro-German generals to preserve the glorious traditions of the country by keeping sacred their pledge by taking up arms before it is too late and join the allies in saving Serbia and humbling treacherous Bulgaria, which "only awaits an opportune moment to crush Greece."

The leading members of the Greek colony here yesterday telegraphed to the King, imploring him, before it is too late, to assure the future of the country by casting its lot with the allies. They expressed the hope that Greeks throughout the world, especially the thousands in America would join with them in appealing to the King to save the honor of the country by supporting Serbia and thus restoring respect for Greece among the allied and neutral nations.

Secretary Garrision Outlines Defense Program As Applied To Land Forces.

Washington, Nov. 6—An outline of the army's part in the national defense program to be submitted to Congress in December by the Administration was made public last night by Secretary Garrison, disclosing officially for the first time details of the plan to raise a great continental or citizen force to supplement the regular establishment.

In brief, it is proposed to increased the regular army from 108,008 to 141,843 officers and men, changing the term of enlistment from four years with the colors and three years on furlough to two years with the colors and four years on furlough; to arganize a Federal citizen army of 400,000 (to be enlisted 133,000 a year for three years); to strengthen the State militia by increased appropriations and closer co-operation; and to spend $20,000,000 a year for four years on coast defenses and $26,000,000 a year for four years in the accumulation of reserve material for use by a force of 500,000 men.

$500,000 SPENT IN PLOT.

But federal Authorities Consided Unreliable Fay's Story.

New York, Nov. 6—At least $500,000 has been expended in carrying out alleged German plots in this country in an effort to prevent war munitions from reaching the Allies, according to a statement made today by one of the officials investigating the cases of Robert Fay, who claimed to be a German army lieutenant, and five alleged accomplices.

Federal authorities admitted that they considered unreliable the lengthy story which Fay readily told concerning his life, history and activities in connection with plots against steamships carrying munitions from this country to the Allies. Fay, it was said, is now believed to be a Hungarian whose real name is Feji.

Federal agents are trying to trace the source of the large amount of money said to have been spent by different men in carrying out or attempting to carry out the various bomb plots.

Fay and Scholz, brother-in-law were closely scrutinized yesterday by a sergeant of marines from the Brooklyn Navy Yard. He was on duty, it is said, when an infernal machine was attached to the rudder post of the battleship Texas some time ago.

The story that an infernal machine was affixed to the battleship when it was in the navy yard was at the time officially denied, but the presence of the marine at the courthouse today revived the report.

The sergeant of marines brought with him a small square box, which, it was said, was the infernal machine alleged to have been attached to the Texas.

WILL ATTACK VALIDITY OF ACT

Liquor Men May Question Legality of Adoption of Enabling Law.

NEXT WINTER'S ISSUE

Prohibitionists in the General Assembly Have, it is Said, Prepared for Contest.

Richmond, Nov. 6.—That the liquor men of the State are laying plans to block the enabling act and the submission of the liquor question to the voters following the adjournment of the next session of the Legislature is the report which is gaining currency in this city.

Assistant Attorney General Garnett admitted that he had heard the report and from his manner and conversation he evidently believes that there is foundation for it.

The plans, so far as they have been disclosed, were to bide the time till the next Legislature enacts law for putting prohibition into effect and clores its session. Then the courts were to be invoked on the ground that the vote whereby the enabling act, which was passed by the Senate two years ago, was not sufficient and therefore void, serving to nullify the submission of the question to the people.

The enabling act was passed two years ago by a decisive majority, but there were differences on the amendments. The Senate and the House each appointed a committee on conference. They reported back, the report favoring the contention of the House.

When the matter of passing on the report of the conference committee came before the Senate there were thirty-eight senators on hand. One dry and one wet member had been called away. They paired, so that the result on a vote was a tie. Had they been present the result would have been unchanged.

This passed the question right up to Lieutenant Governor Ellyson, and he voted to adopt the report of the conferees on the measure. That made the record vote stand 20 to 19.

The liquor men are, according to the report in circulation, to make an attack on the final adoption of the measure by a vote of 20 to 19. The contention is to be that twenty-one votes were necessary to pass the measure, which was in effect a law.

On the other hand, lawyers of recognized ability held that such was not the case; that the vote was on the adoption of a report of a committee on a disagreeing vote, the measure in fact having been adopted by a large mapority.

The scheme was to permit the Legislature to proceed with the work of enacting prohibition laws, to have the Legislature adjourn sine die and then to go to the courts and seek relief by raising the question of ufficiency of the vote which had, as was claimed, passed the enabling act.

The facts have been communicated eo the ears of the prohibition leaders of the State, and whatever defect may have followed the passage of the bill will, it is said, be cured when the next Legislature convenes.

The prohibitionists, it is said, will see to it that a new bill is enacted, the purpose of which will be to remedy any possible weakness that may be raised, though there is no question in the minds of the prohibitionists that they have the ace safeguarded It is wholly competent for the Legislature to enact, a law declaring prohibition effective, and this will be the course of the supporters of the movement, it is declared.

PLAYING COWBOYS

Eleven-Year-Old Boy Accidently Killed by Companion

Philadelphia, Nov. 6—Two small boys were taken from their class rooms in school Wednesday morning by detectives who charged them with shooting and killing Carl Ford, 11 years old, whose body was found on a lot at Third street and Allegheny avenue, early Tuesday morning. The older boy broke down and admitted that he had done the shooting, but declared it was an accident. He is Stanley Smosny, 13 years old. His companion, who is being held as a witness, is John Hartman, 11 years old.

The revolver the boys are accused of stealing from the pawnshop of Gus Newman. On Sunday night the bulk window of the pawnshop was smashed and four revolvers, several alarm clocks and some silver knives and spoons were stolen. One of the revolvers they later sold to a boy for 50 cents, and with the money they purchased cartridges.

After robbing the pawnshop the boys said they had gone home and stayed that night. On Monday they attended school as usual, but on Monday afternoon they met and decided to stay out all night and pretend they were cowboys. After supper they met and went to a lumber yard at American street and Allegheny avenue, where they said they slept. They were not afraid to sleep out, they declared, because they had the loaded revolvers with which to protect themselves from "Indians" or any other "enemy".

Early Tuesday morning they arose and discovered that sleeping in the open air had made them very hungry. A raid on nearby house was made and bread and milk stolen from the doorstep. After they had eaten, the joys of "frontier life" did not appeal to them so much as an old-fashioned game of "tag." Ford was declared "it" and they started to play.

After a short time, Smosny told the detectives, he thought matters could be made more lively by a few shots in the air. He pulled the loaded revolver from his pocket and fired four times, aiming the gun upward. Then he fired at the ground and the bullet passed Hartman, cutting his leg slightly.

"Look out," yelled the boy, "don't shoot any more."

In the excitement, Smosny said, he pulled the trigger again. The gun was pointed back of him and he said he did not see Carl who ran up to see how badly John was hurt. The bullet hit the boy in the head and he mouth. Then the other two boys fled.

CONSTANTINE FURIOUS.

Former Premier Venizelos's Life said to be in Danger.

Rome, Nov. 6.—According to wireless uncensored news from Athens King Constantine is furious at the resignation of the cabinet and is perplexed to find a solution.

The German minister and Prince von Buelow's son, who is attached to the German legation, practically reside at the palace and are in constant consultation with the King, who is in direct wireless communication with the Kaiser Zaimis spent the day at the palace, where pro-German politicians were summoned to confer with the King.

Venizelos' life is considered in danger. The Germans are intriguing against him and it is feared they would not hesitate to bring about his suppression.

Sensational developments, not even excluding revolution, are likely to occur momentarily

JOHNSTON IS VINDICATED

Judicial Council at Chicago Acquits Richmond Surgeon of Charge.

NO CAUSE FOR ACTION

Same Allegation it Says, May Be Laid Against Country's Most Prominent Physicians.

Richmond, Nov. 6.—Dr. George Ben Johnston, the wellknown Richmond surgeon, was acquitted yesterday by the judicial council of the American Medical Association, in session at Chicago, of any intent to offend against the principles of medical ethics. The committee met in executive session, and later gave out its decision.

Dr. Johnston was accused of a violation of professional ethics by Dr. Charles V. Carrington, because he allowed a cartoon and sketch of himself to appear in a local afternoon paper. The act was regarded by Dr. Carrington as unethical, and he preferred charges against the Richmond surgeon with the judicial council of the American Medical Association.

The finding of the council, while primarily advisory in effect, practically means that the Richmond surgeon will be fully exonerated, It will be submitted to the delegates, who will assemble for the national convention of the American Medical Association next year at Detroit, for their adoption or rejection. The recommendation of the judicial council is ordinarily ratified, without question

The charges lodged with the national association against Dr. Johnston were preferred by Dr. Carrington and Dr. J. Shelton Horsley. After an exhaustive sifting of the evidence before the judicial council in Chicago yesterday, the council, by a unanimous vote, rendered the following verdict:

"The judicial council believes the facts elicited do not constitute sufficient cause of action, and the council, therefore, acquits Dr. Johnston of any intent whatsoever to violate the principles of ethics or do an unprofessional act."

The 1904 edition of "Chicagoans As We See 'Em," includes caricatures of 100 physicians and surgeons.

The cartoons and write-ups in the Richmond paper included as subjects Dr Johnston, Dr. Stuart McGuire and Dr. W. T. Oppenhimer.

It has been common knowledge that relations between Dr. Johnston and Dr. Carrington have been strained for several years. The lack of cordiality, it is understood, dates from the time when Dr. Carrington was surgeon at the State Penitentiary. Luther L. Scherer, a member of the penitentiary board now, and a member when Dr. Carrington was surgeon at that institution, accompanied Dr. Johnston to Chicago and testified in his behalf before the council.

The lack of harmony between Dr. Johnston and his accusers is said also to have been influenced by the fact that he was a member of the committee of Virginia surgeons who chose the Virginians who were to be elected to membership in the American College of Surgeons an honorary body. Jealousies, it is said, arose as the result of the appointments which Dr. Johnston favored.

UNION SERVICES.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson Delivers Discourse Last Night.

The union services were largely attended last night at the First Baptist Church and Rev. W. F. Watson preached the sermon. He took as his text the answer Jesus gave to the man who asked if many would be saved, in these words, "Strive to Enter in at the Straight Gate."

The speaker claimed that while salvation is a free gift of God's grace, the man who would press his way into the kingdom must make a great effort. He must break away from sin and evil companions, and this will be accomplished by a great exertion. He must again break away from a sense of self-sufficiency and from the subtle power of procrastination. The speaker said the word strive in the original means agonize. We must enter heaven after strife, conflict and effort. He made an appeal to all who had confessed Christ during these meetings to come forward and openly confess him again and fifteen or twenty responded.

The meetings will be resumed again Monday evening.

OYSTER SEASON OPEN AT RAMMEL CAFE.

CELEBRATION SUNDAY

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Services of Choir at St. Paul's Church

One of the most notable events in the history of St. Paul's Church will be the celebration Sunday, November 14, of the twenty-fifth anniversary of services in connection with the choir of Sherman B. Fowler, organist and director. The program arranged for the morning at eleven o'clock is a festival service and at night, "An Evening with the Choir," will be rendered.

There will be a vested choir of more than fifty voices and those singing will be the ones that have been heard in St. Paul's Church at some time or the other within the past quarter of a century.

Mr. Fowler began his work as organist in 1890, the first quartette under his direction being Mrs. Blanche Berkley, soprano, Miss Florence Evans, alto; Mr. S. Frank Field, tenor; and Mr. George Evans, bass. This quartette sang for a number of years until Miss Caroline Evans, now Mrs. Raymond Hulfish, of Nevada, succeeded Mrs. Berkley, Miss Sarah Rathbone, now Mrs. Dr. Andrews, of Dalton, Mass., took the place of Miss Florence Evans, Dr. McMacNane that of Mr. Field, and Mr. Richard Wirt and Mr. Harris Franklin, that of Mr. Evans. Numerous other changes occured until ten years ago, when the recess chancel was built and the pipe organ installed, and a large vested choir was organized by Mr. Fowler.

The work of the present choir has always been excellent and a series of ambitious cantatas and oratorios has been rendered during the past six years, attracting a large congregation on every occasion. The present quartette leading the chorus is composed of Mrs. Harrie White, soprano; Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, alto; Mr. Wilbur Maddox, tenor; and Mr. Wimer Waller, bass. Too much praise cannot be given Mr. Fowler, whose uplift in music circles and intelligent directing has meant so much to the churches of Alexandria.

GERMANY IS FACING PROBLEMS

The Baltimore Sun in describing the difficult task confronting Germany says:

"On the surface things still look far from encouraging to the Allies, and it requires an elaborate argument to convince the pessimistic that complete victory will finally come their way. But the Teutonic points of advantage are obvious, while the forces operating against the German-Austrian combination are not so easily discernible. A few weeks ago the fall of Petrograd would not have been surprising. Now it seems clear that Russia has only begun to fight. With winter coming on and a long line of communications to protect, the German-Austrian armies in that quarter may have no easy work to maintain their foothold until spring. In France and Belgium the German forces are unable to make any substantial progress and are losing large numbers of men in the hopeless effort to advance, or in the desperate attempt to hold the French and British at bay. In the Balkans they are sweeping on, but at the tremendous sacrifice of life and even if they crush Serbia and reach Constantinople, they are but at the beginning of a gigantic task.

Meanwhile the constant drain of men to keep the Teutonic armies up to the requisite strength, and the drain on the food supplies at home to feed the armies in the field must tend to exhaust even so scientific and resourceful a nation as Germany. Recently German regulations restricting the use of meat were issued, showing a shortage of this important article of diet, and private letters from Germany reveal even more plainly the fact that the people of that country are beginning to suffer from privations of many kinds.

Germany has been gaining great victories in Poland, Russia and the Balkans, but evidently at the cost of great sacrifices at home. A military chain, like every other chain, is no stronger than its weakest link. The weak link seems to be in the conditions among the poorer classes in Germany, the people who really constitute the German nation. These conditions are the unseen forces back of the battle fields that are working against German success. There is distress in France and England, too, but the difference is their ports are open to the world and they still have money to purchase what they need.

We trust with all our hearts that the German people will not suffer from cold and hunger this winter, but we fear from these accounts that many of them will. From a military point of view however, it is impossible to discount the importance of this situation. If an army cannot fight on an empty stomach, neither can a nation, and unless Germany can restock her larder, her triumphs in Russia and the Balkans will not avail her. She will eventually have to surrender to General Exhaustion, and not to General Kitchener. This has been the British plan of campaign from the beginning, and there seems a chance that it may win.

INFLUENCE OF EDITORIALS.

The Roanoke Times recently commented on the alleged conditions existing in North Carolina journalism where a discussion has been in progress as to why so few people read newspaper editorials. The Roanoke paper implies that the fault may not be always with the readers, intimating that many of the newspapers do not make their editorial columns readable and timely in comment on currents events and conditions. The Danville Register in referring to this discussion says it is not prepared to say what the fact is, but believes that many of the newspapers make a mistake in devoting too much space to the discussion of national affairs and politics and too little to the thoughtful and timely consideration of local affairs and topics of interest to the masses of the average community.

Long dissertations on the tariff and on national questions and foreign topics are so much space wasted, says the Register since the newspapers published in the smaller towns can hope to exert little influence in the national field.

GERMANY'S FOOD PROBLEM

(Richmond Virginian)

If the cable dispatches are to be believed, the Germans are facing a real crisis in the matter of food supply, and if this be true, it is a situation that probably points to an early cessation of the warfare that has distressed the whole globe for more than a year.

Although it may not be true that Germany is starving, if the ancient axiom is true that the way to man's heart is through his stomach, it is also true that hunger will take the belligerent spirit out of the best of them, and the fact that the continued warfare has touched the pocketbooks of the Germans so heavily—to the extent, in fact, of drawing on the Emperor's exchequer—ise sufficient to make the German government sit up and take notice, if thesituation does not discourage further aggressiveness

The German press, we are told, is full of the seriousness of the food situation. Says the Frankfurther Zeitung: "While our troops are fighting like the heroes of the classical ages, want is growing acute at home."

That strikes the keynote of the situation, and that sort of a situation strikes home. It is about time that the hostilities ceased; the world is sincerely tired of it as a news feature; Christianity demands it from a humanitarian standpoint, not along from the tremendous loss of human life, but also lest other nations become embroiled in it. If Germany comes to its senses and seeks peace with honor, there would be an early end to it, and it is to be hoped that the present crisis will lead Germany to see the light.

In the meantime the heart of America is as sensibly touched by the sufferings, present and to come, of the German victims of this cruel war, the old, the fatherless the babes in arms, the women whose husbands and sons have gone, never to return, as it has been by the sufferings of the innocents of the other nations. They are the victims of the greed and ambition of their rulers. For the people who suffer our deepest sympathy is aroused.

The British steamer Rio Lages, reported on fire at sea, arrived last night at Halifax, N. S. The fire which was in No. 2 hold, was burning briskly. With the tabulation late last night of official returns from 115 of the 120 counties in Kentucky and revised unofficial but apparently reliable returns from the remaining five counties, A. O. A sensation was created yesterday in Cleveland, Ohio when a teamster for the Forest City Foundry Company found near the plant of that concern nineteen sticks of dynamite with a fuse attached, which had been lighted and had gone out. The dynamite was only a short distance from several buildings of the plant of Theodor Kundtz Company, which has been manufacturing bodies for automobiles for war orders and where a strike is in progress.

When the Sixty-fourth Congress assembles December 6, the membership of the House of Representatives will be divided politically, as follows: Democrats, 229; republicans, 196; progressive, 6; independent, 1; socialists, 1; vacancy, 1. The Democratic majority, over all on a strict party division, would be twenty five. Tammany Hall with its Brooklyn allies controls sixteen of these twenty-five votes, which places the balance of power in the House in the hands of Tammany.

Among the items given out for publication is the following: "Foreign newspapers report that the German government asked the withdrawal of the American minister at Brussels, Brand Whitlock. These reports are absolutely untrue. The fact is the American minister is on leave of absence because of failing health. "The German government has had no reason to ask for the withdrawal of Mr. Whitlock since his personality and his personal activity have never caused dissatisfaction."

Former Secretary Bryan has come out squarely against President Wilson's national defense plan in a formal statement in which he takes issue with the President's views as expressed Thursday night before the Manhattan Club in New York. "A departure from our traditions, a reversal of our national policy, a menace to our peace and safety and a challenge to the spirit of Christianity which teaches us to influence others by example rather than by exciting fear," is Mr. Bryan's view of the national defense plan.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels yesterday issued the first naval order ever transmitted by wireless telephone .To demonstrate to the Secretary the vast possibilities of the usefulness of the wireless telephone in the naval service, engineers of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Western Electric Company arranged for communication between Mr. Daniel's office in the Navy Department building in Washington and that of Rear Admiral Usher, commandant of the navy yard at New York. Conversation was carried on with the greatest ease.

What purports to be a copy of a Russian colonel's report to the commander of the 2d Brigade, Baron von Stempel, in which the killing of German prisoners by Cossacks is described, is printed by the Frankfurter Zeitung. It reads: "We were attacked by enemy infantry on the road fro from Bamevhale to Napyurki. The second company, under Tyrin, and the fourth company, under Jassaul Fashow, attacked the enemy. When the Cossacks escorting German prisoners of the 175th infantry regiment heard their attacking comrades yell they killed the prisoners, because they considered it necessary to participate in the attack, and freed themselves from service as an escort."

Stimmel, of Phonebus, has appealed to Federal officials to recover $30,000 in money and his note for $34,500, out of which he alleges he was swindled in Springfield, Ill., on a fake horse-racing scheme. Stimmel informed the authorities, that he was induced to wager the money in a Springfield poolroom as a result of forming an acquaintance with four men whom he met in Chicago. One of the men was introduced to Stimmel as a betting commissioner for a number of racing stables. He was supposed to have "inside information" on what horses would win.

Protest has been made to the Navy Department by the German officers on the interned raiders at Norfolk against their continued confinement. It is learned that several applications of officers for shore leave had been turned down by the Navy Department. Secretary Daniels indicated that despite the protests the order confining them to their ships, because of the recent escape of six officers on the yacht Eclipse, would be continued indefinitely. The Germans requested the order be revoked so far as it applies to officers. No application for leave by the sailors has been made. The officers contend that as commissioned officers their internment parole will be observed. As the men who left on the Eclipse were all officers, the department is not disposed to take any further chances.

CONDITIONS IN GERMANY

All But old Men Gone to Front—and Hungry Lads of 15 Drilling in Streets

London, Nov. 6—The following letter, which evidently escaped the vigilance of the German censor, was received in London from an Irish soldier who is a prisoner of war in Germany:

"The Germans have old men, 50 and 60 years of age, doing guard over us, with only one night off, and I can assure you that they are very discontented. They are mostly Poles. I go now and again to a neighboring city, and it is terrible to see the people. They are half starved. You could count all the loaves of bread you see in the shops on your fingers. I saw the other evening when I was out about 180 boys between 14 and 17 years of age drilling, and they were terrible wrecks.

"We have a doctor who speaks French and he gives us a little news now and again. He was telling us that their loan before the last was a failure, being $72,000,000 deficient, and the last one was even worse.

"You would be surprised to see the number of people wearing black. They are at their wits' end to get men to go to the front, as they say their losses are very heavy. Their men are complaining daily about the amount of food they are allowed. Oh, it is terrible. Potatoes and stale cabbage for dinner, water and Indian mea' for breakfast and supper. We get a half-pound of black bread, made from potatoes, and it is sour but, thank God and the kind people at home, we don't eat any of it. They are stripping all the lead fittings from buildings in town. They also took the boilers in their barracks away."

Geneva, Nov. 6—Owing to the high prices of food in Germany, neutrals are leaving that country for Switzerland.

Under the heading, "Can We Hold Out? the Neue Zeitung, of Strassburg says:

"Hardly had we crossed the threshhold of the second year of the war when, the question of bread settled, another anxiety faced us; namely, the dearness of the first necessities in the matter of food. Will our enemies succeed in defeating Germany by famine?"

MISS WILSON ON VOTING.

Would Make Ballot Mean Something to Men and Women.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 6 — Miss Margaret Wilson told the Wisconsin State Teachers' Convention here yesterday that the majority of votes cast their ballots with "as little forethought as they give to buying a suit," and proposed as a remedy the use of school buildings as meeting places for citizens and as voting booths, and the employment of school principals as election clerks. She said the people should be organized according to the voting precints with the school buildings as their centers.

"Let us make the vote mean something—all of us, men and women together," said Miss Wilson, "It is disgraceful the way the majority of voters vote. I am told that when a man gets a suit he gets what the tailor tells him to wear. That is what most voters do in the primaries. They vote for the man who 'they say' is the man—'the' being in this case the political bosses. We know this, but have done little so far except talk about it."

Miss Wilson said it "surely is America's opportunity before all nations to prove that the ideal of democracy is more than a dream, that it is a principle that works." She added that self-government "is nothing more or less than a process of education."

Miss Wilson said that her proposals to use school principals as election clerks and secretaries of community social centers were not impractical, most of them having been tried successful in Wisconsin. She said she realized democracy could not be obtained through a machine, but that "we must have the means of expressing ourselves as citizens in a more vital way."

A TWICE TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of an Alexandria women is confirmed after 4 years.

Mrs. Martha Byrne, 209 Wilkes St., Alexandria, says: "I suffered severely from backaches and pains through out my body. My kidneys were badly disordered and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I was steadily running down in health, when a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box greatly benefited me, so I kept on using them and I now enjoy good health."

The above statement was given in November 1910 and on April 9, 1915, Mrs. Byrne said: "I very seldom have any trouble with my kidneys. Just as soon as I notice the least disorder, I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pill and they never fail to give quick results. Doan's Kidney Pills are responsible for my present good health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doans Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Byrnes had. Foser Milburn Co., Buffalo N. Y.

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

Diamonds win out over the roads you know

It is a perpetual battle between tires and roads—and victory is hard-earned.

The strength and toughness of the rubber in Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires resists the roughest road wear—yawning ruts do not take toll from Diamond Squeegees.

Tried for years—on every road that leads in or out of this city—on all makes of cars—Diamond Squeegees have proven their unfailing superiority, and more than satisfy car owners.

We have almost discontinued making smooth treads, because the small (less than 10%) increase we ask for Squeegee treads has made Diamond Squeegees so popular that 90% of the Diamond Tires sold to consumers are Squeegee Treads.

Squeegees were put on the market because they proved to be the most satisfactory non-skid tire—tests prove that in addition to this the Squeegee construction (more rubber where the wear is hardest) makes Squeegees the best Long Distance tire at the price.
